Miguel Roura-Ortiz Francisco Valcárcel, FPD

=====

CASE IS CALLED FOR A REVOCATION HEARING. Counsel for defendant informs that his client is not challenging violations #2 and #3 as so mentioned in the motion filed by the probation officer (see docket #1238). Therefore, defendant is waiving the revocation hearing and requests to be sentenced accordingly.

Government's counsel informs that he has no objection to the sentence recommendation as it so appears in the pre-sentence report.

After hearing the parties, the Court finds that the defendant has violated his conditions of supervised release term imposed on October 24, 2002 and it is hereby revoked.
